He was a lot of fun to be with and was so proud of his family. Rest in Peace, Andy. Sending prayers and thoughts to his family...Judy Wolfe

“ Andy was my close childhood friend. We lived a few houses away from each other as children and kept in contact even though we lived many miles away from each other. He always talked about his love and pride of his family, especially his grandchildren. He was a kind,gentle person with mounds of humor. May the wonderful memories that you had with Andy ease your pain. I know God will take good care of him.

“ Debra and family,

Please accept my condolences for your loss. I worked at DCJS with Andy for 20 years. He was an enthusiastic co-worker. He loved his staff and loved travelling to NYC to do monitoring visits. He spoke often of you Debra, and was so very proud of Drew and Alex. He never stopped gushing over you both.

Please know he will live on in the memories of his co-workers.

“ I worked with Andy for years at DCJS and have lots of great memories because a lot of us traveled together in the old days. One particular trip in NYC (Crime Prevention days), he told us he would get us into a great Italian restaurant. One long table was the group of us. At the next table were a bunch of garbage men celebrating one of their retirements. Andy ended up befriending them and sitting with them instead of with us. Lots of laughs that night. He was a fun guy. The last time I saw him was a couple of years ago at Western Turnpike golf course. A couple of days ago I found a golf ball with the initials AP. I picked it up and wondered if it was his. Now I'm sure it was. My sympathies Debbie and boys. I know how proud he was of his sons.

“ Andy was a nice guy — kind, funny, non-judgmental. He was especially nice to my Mom who considered him like a son. And speaking of sons, Drew and Alex were lucky to have him as a Dad. Andy was a person worth knowing, and I am glad that I knew him. My heart-felt sympathy to Deb and to everyone who feels this loss.

“ I knew Andy through our golf league. One week Andy and I were matched against each other during league play. I had won the first three holes rather easily when Andy decided it was time to make our match "more even". I was standing over a three foot putt that would win the fourth hole when Andy came up behind me and gave me a big kiss on the back of my neck. I missed that putt and I don't think I made another good shot the rest of the match. I believe that match ended up in a tie. Andy would never let me forget that but I always love playing golf with him. He never let you get too serious about the game and made me realize that it was really about being with people you enjoy not who shot the best score. He was a huge pain in the butt...and I loved him dearly!
So sorry for your loss.
