Susan B. Cummings

February 18, 1963 - February 28, 2016

Susan B Cummings, 53, of Loudonville, NY, died of complications associated with lung cancer on Sunday, February 28, 2016 at St. Peter's Hospital in Albany, NY.

Susan was loved dearly by many people and we are heartbroken to have lost her so soon. She was the best friend and cherished wife of Ralph A Kartel, Sr., 52, and beloved mother of Ralph A Kartel, Jr., 18, both of Loudonville, NY. Susan also leaves behind her two "little sisters", Karen Cummings of Malden Bridge, NY and Lynda Cummings of Moretown, VT as well as her dearest friend, Kerry Mosher, two nephews, Jack Murphy and Elijah Lanford and a niece, Avery Murphy.

Susan grew up in Clifton Park, NY, is a graduate of Shenendehowa high school and studied photography at Rochester Institute of Technology. She worked as a professional photographer in New York City for a time before returning to upstate NY. In recent years she worked at the Pro Desk at the Home Depot on Washington Ave in Albany, NY. She loved her job and in return was loved and respected not only by her co-workers but also by the contractors and apartment managers with whom she worked.

Susan's family would like to thank her co-workers, customers and Home Depot for their dedication, kindness and respect during her illness.

Susan is the daughter of the late Ines Cummings and the late H. David Cummings of Clifton Park, NY.

Arrangements are being handled through McVeigh Funeral Home in Albany.

A brief memorial service will be held at the funeral home on Saturday, March, 5, 2016 at 3 pm with visiting hours from 1:30-3 pm.

My condolences on the loss of your loved one, may the words at Isaiah 25:8 be of much comfort during this time, "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces."

I worked with Susan at The Home Depot. I was saddened to hear of her passing. She was a kind person with a warm heart. My thoughts and prayers go out to her family.
