“ Cindy,

Nancy and I were terribly saddened to hear about your mother's passing. We know how devoted you were to her. You were a wonderful caregiver. We both have lost our mothers and understand how devastating it is. We send you our heartfelt thoughts and prayers.

“ Carolyn was such a lovely, gracious, fun-loving individual. She had a beautiful smile and infectious laugh. It was a shock to learn of her passing just days after seeing her so upbeat and animated despite her reliance on an oxygen cart. She was a beautiful person and will be sadly missed.

“ Sixty years of beautiful memories

The last time I saw Carolyn will be burned in my memory and heart forever. It was this past Wednesday, December 13th at a reunion luncheon with some of the 1961 McCloskey "girls". She was her usual glowing, fun loving beautiful self and you could tell that she was enjoying the gathering immensely. She enjoyed her glass of white wine and her lunch while chatting with her friends Her laugh is still ringing in my ears. Rest in eternal peace my dear friend knowing that you will always be remembered by so many who cherished you more than you could have possibly imagined.

My deepest condolences to Paul, Cindy, Matthew, Paul Jr., Matthew Thomas, Judy and her many nieces and nephews.
