“ Emily Dickinson referred to her long deceased father as that "Pause in space we call Father." Jeanne and the entire Dugan clan will understand what she meant. Dan was a wonderful welcoming presence to all who knew him; I shall never forget his kindness to Karen and his wonderful tribute to his beloved brother Neil. Dan was a man of great courtesy and kindness for whom the old forms still mattered. He was an interested and interesting man whose keen mind was a joy to encounter. I was privileged to know him and feel his loss deeply. Karen and I extend our sympathies and shared sorrow to all of Dan's family.

“ Dear Mr. Dugan, Elaine & Sean, Mike & Alicia and family:

I very sorry to hear about the passing of Mr. Dugan, he was a dear friend and classmate of my father at VI and it was always fun to hear about the winter trips to Tampa for golf, spring training baseball games and of course VI stories. I know for Mike & Alicia, losing two fathers three months apart is tragic, and how difficult it is to lose someone so important to your family. When you read about how full a life so well lived was, it sets an example for the rest of us still here to carry on and try to live like they did. I am sorry Tricia and I will not be there to express our sympathy in person, but our thoughts and prayers are with all of you and the grandchildren. Knowing the great people you are, you will get through this together. We love you and are thinking of you.

“ I was deeply saddened to hear of Dan's death. He was a generous, loving man, always ready with a smile or a laugh. The world is a lesser place without him. We were friends and I will miss him.
