Margaret was employed by Albany Housing Authority where she worked to become the first female housing manager for AHA. Margaret retired as a Senior Housing Manager managing multiple elderly residences. Margaret had a beautiful voice and loved to sing. She enjoyed travelling with her family and friends. She spent most evenings reading and enjoyed a monthly book club with her friends from high school. She was also the New York Yankees most loyal fan.

Margaret is predeceased by her loving husband John Paige, her brothers, Robert and Michael Johnson and sister-in-law Jeanne Johnson. “ Dear Bob & family,
Words are not enough to express how I felt about your mom. The words written here are beautifully said because she was truly loved by everyone who met her. She was the sweetest, kindest person with the most gentle ways one could ever have the pleasure of meeting in a lifetime. Bob, your loyalty, devotion and dedication to your mom was more than any mother could ask for. She was lucky to have you. I, for one, go back to when I was growing up. I was lucky too. She was such an inspiration to me and truly my salvation; I can only imagine having someone like this wonderful person as a mom. You must have always felt so protected & safe. Yes, she was a true Yankee fan and never missed a game. I loved that in her. Full of many interests especially her reading club and crossword puzzles. I will miss her dearly as she was my best friend. She will hold a special place in my heart forever. Please try to remember all the good times and memories during this very difficult time for you. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Please accept my sincere and deepest condolences. I love you. June
