“ I worked with Mary in the NYS Museum building for many years. Very sorry to hear of her passing. My condolences to her family.

“ Dear Marcia, Joan, “Bud”, Jim, Stephen & Family –

Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of Mary. She was a special lady in so many ways. I am surprised and very saddened by her passing. I have been working at Rosewood on a per diem basis and had heard that Mary was in the hospital, but I had also heard that she should be back at Rosewood within a few days; so I had fully expected to see her at today’s picnic. I saw her obituary this morning and feel so bad – I wish I had visited her in the hospital as I had intended but didn’t because I thought I’d see her today.

I don’t know what to say except that while I worked at the front desk Mary became a good friend. She had a routine of coming to the front lobby either to watch “The Duke” or “The Puppies” (names she gave to Netflix movies she liked.) She also did her beads and coloring. I would help her with each of these activities as I was able.

Mary was a strong willed, determined, loving woman of faith who I will always remember fondly. I will miss her and am so glad I got to know her if only briefly.

God Bless,
Mark Romani
