“ Dear Family Members of Father Farano:

I knew Father from St. Joseph's Church and School. He was so patient with us and we would all look forward to his visits to the school. My Aunt would take me Church every Sunday faithfully and she just adored him and his sermons. it's because of him that I became the first "alter girl" St. Joe's Church had. He made such an impact on so many of us.

My deepest sympathies on your family and the communities loss.

“ Around 2006 the pastoral council asked me to establish the original St.Pius web site. I was told be careful not to surprise Father Farano. So every Sunday morning I came for the 10 am mass early and talked to Father about my progress and plans. He was very supportive and helpful. Told me to add more photos. "You can't take too many photos." As I think back, how generous he was of his time, now knowing how busy he always was. You would never know it when he was with you.

“ To Father Farano's Family, St. Pius X Parishioners and Priests of the Albany Diocese,

I just want to extend my condolences on the passing of Father Farano. He was pastor of St. Pius X when my uncle, the late John A. Lyons, Jr., was a long-time parishioner. Father Farano took the time to visit Uncle John when he was in his last stages of cancer at St. Peter's Hospice, and celebrated Uncle John's Funeral Mass in 1995.

He also know both of my late parents quite well, Robert J. Hedderman, Sr., and Eleanor Lyons Hedderman (Uncle John's only sibling.)

Again, please accept my sympathies on your loss, and I am thinking and praying for both Father Farano and you during this difficult time.

Yours truly,

My dad was an ambassador at the Albany Airport while you were there and he was thrilled that you came to visit him in the hospital before he passed. My condolences to the family of Father Farano. “ A wonderful, kind and intelligent man with a great sense of humor to boot! Fr. Farano married my husband and I, celebrated my mother's funeral mass and visited me when I was sick in the hospital. He also accomplished the nearly impossible....making his sermons engaging and inspirational! He was much loved and will be much missed.

My sincere condolences to his family and friends.

“ I was so blessed to know Fr. Mike. He was a "Hometown" boy. I had the pleasure of being involved in many of his family's religious events, including the funerals of both his parents, weddings of his nieces and nephews, and more. Please know you are all in my prayers. God has gained a great man.

“ Mike and I connected on many levels when I was a Sister of St. Joseph living at St. Pius convent. We would share stories about growing up in Italian families and the laughter was so genuine. We also shared the love of family and food which go hand in hand. I taught his nephews the Smiths when they were at St. Mary's in Glens Falls. So family and ethnic stories was the quality of our encounters. My condolences to the Smith boys and to Mike's sisters! Mike, Rise in Glory!

“ Beautiful tribute to an amazing man.

I am so sorry and sad to hear that Father Farano passed away.

He was an amazing man and an inspiring leader who was passionate about being a Priest. I admired his spirituality, business sense, humbleness and sense of humor. I loved working for him as Coordinator of Youth Ministry at St. Pius X many years ago (he'd correct me by saying work 'with him'). From him, I learned so much about being pastoral, holding space and being present as people went thru the grief and loss process. He was one of the best people I've ever had the pleasure of working for and with.

One example of the kind, compassionate man he was; when my grandfather died he and a priest friend drove all the way to Johnstown for the wake to support me and my family.

I was working at St. Pius when 9/11 happened. It was reassuring and consoling as he lead us (the Parish and School Community) through a horrific time in history with his compassionate leadership.

I considered him not only my boss and Pastor but a friend. He will always have a special place in my heart. He was always there for me whenever I needed a listening ear, advice or just to chat. I have so many awesome memories of this special man.

Rest In Peace great and faithful servant of God.

Healing Prayers, Peace and Blessings to all who knew and loved him.

“ A very special Tribute Video sharing the wonderful life and career of Father Farano. Thank you for sharing the video. Father Farano continued to show the example of living what you learn. We are blessed to witness his dedicated life of caring for others. Father Farano is an inspiring example of a life well lived. Sympathy and Love from The Padula Family

“ Father Farano is a bigger than life person to whom you are drawn to. His magnetic personality, quick wit and smile and laugh always made everyone welcome. I will miss him. He was more than a friend, he was family. Warm and generous with his many gifts and so very modest about his many accomplishments. I will never forget the positive effect he has had on my life. Rest in peace, my friend, I am well aware that you are still with us, only on a higher plain - Heaven!

“ Fr Mike Farano was a friend and mentor to many of the priests who now serve our parishes. He taught us with kindness and his wonderful sense of humor. We will miss his pastoral skills, his kindness and above all his love of the diocese, and God's people. I am sure he heard the words of the merciful God he served so well, “enter the kingdom good and faithful servant.”

“ Kathleen and I lost a person very dear to us, he blessed our marriage along with Rabbi Martin Silverman, his close friend. He claimed it was the first mixed marriage he had ever blessed. I have had a long and wonderful relationship with Michael which includes a humorous story as to how he became chair of the Albany County Airport Authority. His intellect and sense of humor made him a very special person. He is a great loss to his Church as well as to the community as a whole. Richard M Meyers
