“ Dear Rob, Kelly, Nancy, Bobby and Diane, Dennis and I are very sorry for your loss. Please know you and all the family are in our prayers as you mourn the passing of such a kind, generous, fun-loving soul as Sally's. We wish with all our hearts we could be there for her wake and funeral to offer you our comfort and our stories but we are in New Orleans for a conference (and a little gumbo). We will have a Mass said for Sally when we get home, but if there ever was someone who has already earned her crown in heaven it is surely Sally. Much love to you all, Mary Lou and Dennis

“ I knew Sally through Hedy and Linda when we all went to St Rose. They always spoke of her kindness and what a good person she was.
After watching the tribute, it was so clear to me that her wonderful spirit and love she had for family and friends will forever be with all of you.
My sincere condolences

“ Rob Jovell once said to me “Sally is the best person I know.” It struck me that he didn’t say nicest or sweetest or kindest but THE BEST. When I first met Sally at CCS, it was evident she was held in the highest regard by teachers, administration, students and parents. Being her colleague was great but being her very good friend was THE BEST. I am grateful for our comraderie at Cohoes Catholic, the classroom projects we collaborated on and the school plays we co-directed. We were fortunate that our spouses also became good friends and the four of us traveled to Ireland, the Caribbean, Alaska, the Grand Canyon And San Francisco. We shared a cottage for a week in Cape Cod one summer. These were extraordinary times for us but Sally also made everyday happenings fun for me. Sally was a great story teller and she shared her love of family through her stories. I am so grateful to have loved and enjoyed Sally these past few decades. Rest In Peace, dear friend.
My love and sympathy to Rob, Kelly & family and the Goodman family.

“ The love she had for her husband Rob, daughter Kelly, Scott her son she never had and her 3 precious grandchildren completed her life. You saw the sparkle in her eyes when she was with her family. That sparkle will always shine above and your memories will always be in your heart. God Bless you all & may you find strength through God to help you with your lost.
