“ Our sincere condolences to Donna, Nicholas, Leah, Louis and Diane Spoltore. Although there is a distance from where we both live, you are always close to our hearts and minds. May the loss of Steven remind us what family is all about. May we spend each living moment like there is no tomorrow and love one another without boundaries. May God give you all strength during this period of sorrow and fill every passing day with courage and strength. Steven might have passed, but the memories left behind will live forever.

With Love,

“ When my husband was dying, Steve always sent me encouraging notes. We graduated together so there are many stories behind our group of friends. What's really amazing is that I just found out today my sister Patty Eysaman has been friends with your family over thirty years. The funny part, I never knew that until today! (And I'll bet he never realized that either because I'm sure he would have mentioned it!) This is a tough time. I just went thru this a few weeks ago. Stay strong. Lean on friends and the love of family. I'll keep you all in my prayers.

“ Friends like Steve don't come around too often. You drove us crazy, and added so much to our lives!! The Adirondack Victory Riders will miss you! I will miss you terribly....our trips together, our riding together, and mostly your ability to make every day as fun as it could be, and live life on your terms! I hope you remembered your phone! I'll miss you, Brother! Until we ride again!!! Pete

“ I lost a piece of my heart. One of my oldest and closest friend has left this realm. This has devastated me. I can never replace his friendship and love. For the past 2 days I've been crying and asking God why he took him away so early. This April Steve and I would have been fiends for 45 years. We worked together, played together and laughed and cried together. There is no way to replace his friendship and love. The one thing I do know is that my dear mother adored Steve, so I know she is with him now helping his transition. This is the hardest thing I have had to deal with since my mothers passing. Good God the memories I have of Steve are priceless. May God bless him and his family. I miss you my brother and I will always have you in my heart and mind until my last breath. Save me a seat next to you. I love you Steven Spoltore.

“ I was very sad to hear of Steve's passing. I trained Steve at MRL/ENV, and worked with him many times over the years at AMC and Trudeau Institute in Saranac Lake. He was a hard worker which made my job easier. Steve definetly had his opinions.

Even though I hadn't seen him in the 2.5 years since I left ENV, I will miss him.

Sorry for your loss.
