I finally watched this..though I put the photo's together with my sister I could not look at this at the wake...I did it and I am soooo sad but also so very happy to have had her in my life and my kids for so long. She was my confirmation mother and my other mother for real and she took me and my lil sister to church and instilled so may values into me alongside my uncle Tom who was the main man in my life for many years and my kids. She will be missed and mourned by me for many years to come...my sister and I will wonder who is picking her up for the holidays and who's house will she choose for each one and we will be lost and we will not how to get by. Love her and miss her much.

The world has lost a beautiful soul. Aggie was my god mother & best buddies with my mother Kay-Kay since elementary school. Aggie & Mom were together & remembering the "good ole days" recently & it was a delight to them both as well as me to see such a friendship continuing for so many years. Aggie was loved by all whose lives she touched & those she helped along her journey. God bless all her family
