

Alice C. Riddett

August 6, 1927 - May 5, 2022

Albany-Alice C. Riddett, devoted mother and grandmother, passed away peacefully on May 5, 2022 surrounded by her loving family.

Born in Brooklyn , NY and raised in Hempstead, NY, the daughter of the late Carl and Lina Mueller. She was predeceased by Edward, the love of her life and husband of almost 60 years, and brother, Roy Mueller.

She is survived by her children, Ken(Joanne), Kathy Luther(Milt), Karen(Louise Guiliano), Kevin(Debbie), grandchildren April, Jennifer, Kimberly, Kyle, Brian, Lisa, Milton, and Michelle and her many granddogs. Alice worked as a baby nurse on Long Island for many years before retiring. She was passionate about volunteering and helping others and spent many hours at the VA Hospital and the soup kitchen. She loved to travel and enjoyed her flowers, birds and fish.

Alice fully enjoyed spending time with her friends at the Avila community; exercising, playing bocce, going to plays, having dinner and socializing at wine and cheese.

She will be laid to rest with her husband and brother at the Saratoga National Cemetery. All services will held privately.

In lieu of flowers please consider donating to the Upstate Northeastern New York Chapter Crohn's & Colitis Foundation 103 Patroon Dr #10, Guilderland, NY 12084

“ Dear Riddett Family,
The Todd's (BJ, Debi, Amy & Abby) fondly remember Alice as a great lady and wonderful next door neighbor. We were so sorry to hear of her passing and are thinking of all of you as you mourn the loss of your Mom and Grandma (especially as we celebrate Mother's Day tomorrow). We have such nice memories of our days at 508 Sir Charles Way. Brian used to come over and play cards with the girls and I loved when Lisa would drop by to say hello. Ed was the most interesting fellow to talk with and Alice was always so friendly.

We will keep you in our prayers as you deal with your loss. Our sincere warm regards to all your family.
