“ To the Barranca children, While you had so many wonderful years with your mom and dad,I had wonderful years at 269 Madison Ave. I spent many weekends and summers with Dolly,Doodle,Nancy,Cookie,Anarita,Carrie,Daddy and Sparky. I guess it began by the younger girls as my babysitter,and when I moved to Rensselaer, these wonderful people took me under their wing and I spent years with them.I loved living there and cried when I has to go home.They spoiled me rotten and I never realized your mom was the baby and I must have taken some of her spotlight but she was wonderful to me, They all have hearts of goid and taught me so many good things. I started crying as soon as i saw the tribute viedo, and was crying harder at the end and was so glad to see Carrie and the girls as I knew them. My mother never had to buy a stich of my clothes til I was a teenager, that's how good they were to me.I was at the begining of your mom and dad also all 2 other of there marriages. I came to the funeral but got upset to see Gloria not remembering me cause I know she would have been so happy to see me. I know growing up with the Tomasone family was the best lives you kids could of had. Please know your mother was loved by me as well as many others. RIP Ruth Ann “ Anarita was my Godmother from my Confirmation in 1973. Uncle Gus was my Godfather from my Baptism. Anarita's passing leaves a whole in our universe. She was the last remaining pinocle player comprised of my parents and the two of them. I distinctly remember how she shared the news that she was pregnant with Rachel. Dad and I were on a trip alone to Albany (from New Jersey) and as always, made a visit to the Barranca's. We walked into the house and smelled that wonderful smell of Italian cooking, Anarita was always in the kitchen when we went for a visit. Her back was to us, and she simply turned sideways to show her growing baby bump! We were shocked and elated at the news of another Barranca coming into the world.

My sincerest sympathy to the whole family. I am sure she will be truly missed. Love Lisa Miller

“ The best memory is our families would get together, Anarita in her kitchen apron, a pot of sauce on the stove (it always smelled so good the second you walked in the house) is kids playing and hanging out together while the parents told stories. After supper it was Gus and my dad to the living room, Gus would light his cigar and dad his pipe. Once the kitchen was clean, our moms would sit at the dining room table to just gab and try to keep us kids in line when things got a little crazy. Then it was pinochle time. Our parents loved to play pinochle and I loved watching them. They would discuss after each hand what happened, strategy stuff like that. They would play till us kids would fall asleep. It was a great time in my life and will cherish the memories of Gus and Anarita Barranca
