

Angeline "Julie" Crupe

August 10, 1915 - January 10, 2012

Angeline "Julie" Crupe, 96, passed away peacefully on January 10, 2012 after a short stay at the Resurrection Nursing Home.

She was born in Manchester, Vermont to the late Dominick and Stella (Verrecchio) Lombardo. The family moved to Troy where Julie attended St. Mary's School and was employed by Cluett-Peabody Shirt Company prior to her marriage.

She moved to Albany when she married her late husband , Charles, and was married for 59 years at the time of his death in 1997. Julie was a devoted wife and caregiver to her husband in his later years. Her favorite times were spent with her immediate and extended family members. Julie loved caring for her grandchildren when they were pre-schoolers. She was a devout Catholic whose daily routine included Mass and the Rosary Hour on ETWN.

Survivors include her devoted children John (Mickey) Crupe, Marie (Vince) Stein, loving grandchildren Chris and Ericka Stein, "baby" sister Ann Rymanowski, numerous nieces, nephews and special godchild Barbara Micare. She was preceded by her sisters Madeline Suriano, Jennie Berger, Mary Lanzillo, and brothers Anthony and Dominick Lombardo
