“ To the family of Ann Dillon:

I can not tell you how saddened i was to hear of the passing of Ann. I had the priviledge to care for Anns hair for many years, my name is John Hartz from Rapunzels Hair Salon. I will never forget Ann and her very warm laugh. We always had a good time when your mother was in the shop. I will tell you that she spoke lovingly of her family at all times. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

Sincerely John Hartz

“ Dear Patrick and Family,

I was shocked to learn of Ann's passing. She and I grew up in the same neighborhood and went to St. Margaret Mary's School together. We both stayed in the neighborhood after we married and often ran into each other. Ann was a special lady. We were always saying we were going to get together for lunch but unfortunately never did it. I will keep you and your family in my prayers.
