

Anna Morigerato Ferlazzo

October 16, 1924 - February 1, 2017

Albany-Anna Morigerato Ferlazzo, age 92, passed away peacefully on February 1, 2017 at Albany Medical Center surrounded by her family.

Anna was born in Patti, Sicily on October 16, 1924, where she was raised and educated. She graduated from Messina Preparatory Teacher's College with a major in languages. As a youth she worked as a governess.

At age 26, Anna immigrated through Ellis Island and married Salvatore J. Ferlazzo and raised four children, Silvia, John (Carol), Salvatore (Donna) and Linda (Bill Corbin).

She worked at the Italian Consulate office as an interpreter. Her main career was a pharmacist assistant at AMC until 1973.

Anna loved to travel, visiting Italy often. She also loved gardening, swimming, reading, sewing and cooking for family gatherings.

Anna was particularly devoted to Saint Padre Pio and Saint Anthony and her loving grandchildren, Theresa Marcello (Joseph), Donald Ferlazzo (Jamie), William Corbin (Marissa), Christopher (Fiancé Jolie Rahal) and Jonathan (Emily), girlfriend and her two great grandchildren Joseph Marcello and Jason Corbin. She was predeceased by her parents Gesualdo Morigerato and Maria Marrella Morigerato, her infant son Joseph and her loving husband of 60 years, Salvatore J. Ferlazzo. She was also predeceased by her brothers Dominic and Nino and her sister Sarina and her nephew Dominic Morigerato. Her other brothers Anthony (Barbara deceased) and Tindinaro (Sandy) Morigerato, and her sister in law Angie Dys survive her.

Relatives and friends are invited to visit with Anna's family Friday, February 3, 2017 4:00 to 7:00 pm in McVeigh Funeral Home, 208 North Allen Street, Albany.

Silvia, I am saddened to learn of your mom's passing. It was always clear the role of love and significance she had in your life. Certainly it took the circle a long time to come round providing so many rich times together. Her life is inspirational. Indeed she will rest in peace and be cherished. Julie

“ Dear Sylvia,

I hold the weekend that we spent together in Orlando, Florida as a heartfelt memory. It was so wonderful to have the opportunity to celebrate Dr. Rachelle Salerno's mother's 90th birthday with you and your mother.

My sincerest sympathy to you and your family for your recent loss.

Sincerely,
Dr. Rosemary J. Uzzo

“ Dear Silvia, Sal, John, Linda and your family.

My thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this time. Anna (Mrs. Ferlazzo) was a wonderful, kind person that will be deeply missed. Heaven gained a new angel. We have many happy memories of birthdays, holidays, and many special times together. I am sure that my Mom, one of her best friends, was right there to welcome her with open arms into heaven. May she Rest In Peace with her loved ones in heaven. With much love, Rachelle
