“ Aunt Annie was a sweet, lovely, and quiet lady. I never heard her raise her voice. Her husband, Uncle Johnny was far from quiet! She and my Mom got along very well. She was the last of the Aunts, or Uncles on my Mom's side left. My Mom considered the Shea's her brothers, and sisters after losing her own Mom shortly after she was born. God bless Annie and her family. I know she will be missed. Bill Hasselbach
