“ I am very sorry for your loss. Miss Martin was my English teacher and because of her I have always enjoyed reading. She made the classics come alive for us. I will always remember our trip to the Stratford Theatre in Connecticut to see MacBeth.##imported-begin##Fran Lobdell - RCS Class of 63##imported-end##

“ Miss Martin was a very good teacher. She motivated her students to become acquainted with a higher class of literature, something that wasn't going to happen on its own at RCS! I didn't really appreciate her at the time. That came later.##imported-begin##craig stickler - Class of 1964##imported-end##

“ I will always have fond memories of Ms. Martin. She was a dedicated teacher who had high expectations of her students and therefore brought out the best in them. Her legacy is the love of literature that her former students enjoy and then pass along to younger generations.##imported-begin##Donna Bradbury RCS Class of 1985##imported-end##

“ Ms. Martin was a wonderful lady and I enjoyed her not only as a student in her English class but I remember she was so happy to attend our 50th Class Reunion. She did so enjoy seeing her former classmates. She was quite an inspiration for her students. Thanks Ms. Martin for knowing you....
