“ Mike, Brett, Bonnie, and Jeanie
I'm sorry to learn of Anne's passing and send my heartfelt condolences.
Annie was beautiful, inside and out.
She gave FTD a run for its money and I'll forever hear her sing and see her dance.
Holidays will be exceptionally beautiful in Heaven this year, and I'll bet everyone gets a quilt.
Godspeed Annie till we meet again.

“ While I was saddened to learn of Anne’s passing, my thoughts also turned to memories of the immensely enjoyable times that my wife and I shared with Anne including summers cruising Lake George in a cigarette boat and winters sliding down snow-covered slopes on a toboggan; enjoying dining out at Cavilari’s; experiencing the warmth and fellowship of the parties she hosted at her lovely home for her wide circle of friends; and, taking trips to destinations like Boston, where she was nearly responsible for starting a small riot when she removed Brett’s raincoat at the renown No Name Seafood Restaurant to reveal his jacket emblazoned with the New York Yankees baseball logo! Anne was a loving wife, a kind and caring mother, and a loyal friend who will be missed by all who knew her. I send my heartfelt prayers and condolences to Mike, Brett, Bonnie, Jeanie, and the rest of Anne’s family.
