“ It’s very difficult to share just one memory regarding Tony. I have many memories as I grew up with he and his family. His mom, Aunt Ziale as she was known too me was the (rock)!, Whenever there was a crisis we had to call her for help. We shared many years at Tony’s home either watching the Friday night fights on tv or in the backyard eating gooseberries and grapes. As the years passed Tony married a wonderful soulmate Dorothy. Their relationship never wavered. No doubt he had to be one of the best dad one could hope. I’m sure his daughters Ellen and Loraine can attest to that Tony had an infectious smile always. . He will be missed by many of us. Victoria Hodgkinson
