

Anthony J Paolucci Jr.

September 2, 1954 - November 16, 2013

ALBANY- Anthony J. "Mooch" Paolucci, Jr, 59, died Saturday, Novmer 16, 2013 at St. Peter's Hospiial. Born in Hot Springs, AR he was raised by his late father Anthony J. Paolucci, Sr and his late grandmother Antoinette Paolucci. He was a graduate of the former Vincentian Institute, class of 1972 and had attended classes at Sage College of Albany.

He started his career at the US Postal service as a clerk, went on to become a letter carrier and finally attained the position of delivery Supervisor, retiring in 2012.

He was an avid Yankees fan, enjoyed coaching Babe Ruth and National Little League, fishing, bowling, watching his daughter dance and the company of his beloved dogs.

He is survived by his wife of 26 years, Mary Anne Pilbeam Paolucci; father of Anthony J. Paolucci III and Kristen Paolucci. He is also survived by many uncles, cousins and friends.

The family would like to extend their heartfelt thanks to the staff of St. Peter's Hospiial and the Intensive Care Unit.

Those wishing to remember Anthony in a special way may send contributions to the American Liver Foundation

“ Very sad and sorry to hear of the passing of our friend (as we called him) Moocher. A number of us from our high school years had a great time hanging around with Tony. He was always with a smile and full of laughs. We were all in our teens, enjoying each others' company. May he rest in peace. Barbara Terry

“ We love you Tony and will miss you. You made the best clam chowder for our Labor Day parties for years. We shared good times and bad with you but you will always be in our hearts and we were blessed to call you "Friend".
