

Antonietta R. Lesstino

October 7, 1912 - August 24, 2010

Albany- Antonietta R. Lesstino, 97, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, August 24, 2010 after a long illness. Born in Albany she was the daughter of the late Thomas and Rose Mazzarella DeSorbo. She was a seamstress in Albany before becoming a homemaker. She was predeceased by her husband Nicholas in 1958. She was the sister of the late Angeline Fusco, Josephine Insero and Anthony DeSorbo.

Antonietta was devoted to her family throughout her entire life, never missing an opportunity to celebrate a family event. She will be fondly remembered for her cooking and unforgettable baked goods.

She was the beloved mother of Ann Conley (late Raymond) of Albany and Joseph Lesstino (Sarah) of West Palm Beach, FL; cherished grandmother of Kathleen Conley, Raymond Conley, Scott Lesstino and Angela White; special aunt to Anthony (Janice) Insero, Thomas (Barbara) Insero, John Crisorio and Giovanni (Michaela) DiSorbo; several great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, grand nieces, grand nephews and cousins also survive.

The family would like to extend their gratitude to Dr. Richard Balsam and his staff, St. Peter's Hospital and St. Peter's Nursing and Rehabilitation Center for the loving care they provided Antonietta.

Funeral services Saturday, August 28, 2010 at St. Francis of Assisi Parish (formerly St. James Church), Albany at 9:00 a.m. where a Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated. Relatives and friends are invited. Interment will follow the Mass at Our Lady of Angels Cemetery, Colonie.

“ Dear Mrs. Conley,

I am deeply saddened to hear of the passing of your mother. I have such ond memories of "Gram". Her wisdom, warmth, compassion and generosity have remained a treasured part of my youth. And yes, I find myself smiling at the thought of her wonderful cakes and cookies.

Please forgive my absence for the services, and that of my parents as well, as ther are presently away.

Perhaps knowing she liived a rich, long life will one day aid in easing the pain of her passing.

God Bless you and your family.

With Love
