“ To Mr. Miuccio's family:

My deepest condolences for your loss. Our prayers are with you during this difficult time. I always heard good things about Nino. I am sure that he was a hard worker, made good bread/biscuits and loved horses. I know many members of Nino's family (including his wife, sister, nephews, nieces, and cousins), but, unfortunately, never had the pleasure to meet him, even though his native town in Sicily is very close to mine.

R. I. P. (Riposa In Pace - Rest In Peace), Nino.

Mi associo al vostro cordoglio.

“ I enjoyed very much my visits from Nino at the gateway diner. Nino would stop in weekly as I was the baker there and get a lemon meringue pie from me. Nino was a mans man always giving me a very uplifting complement on the skills both in baking and as a women. I think of him often and I'm so happy he was able to return back to his homeland, he told me many stories of his days in Italy. Rest in peace my pie eating friend.
