“ Today we say goodbye to a sweet gentle man who loved nothing more but to be with his family. Zio Tony had a great will to live and seemed untouchable. cancer thought otherwise, it took another one of our great ones and he will be truly missed . The thing i remember most about Zio , was that he was always happy,always making jokes, just happy to be here on earth . I'm sure by now he is in heaven enjoying a game of cards with Uncle Tony, zio Joe and Nicky and Enza is making them some pasta. We never know why this happens, Ralph and i give our love to all of the family and please know we are here for you. try and stay strong .

Our Love,
Ralph and Debbie##imported-begin##Deborah
