“ *I was a dear friend of Barb's for many years and sadly, lost touch with her the past 10 years or so....I have so many fond memories of her; her humor; her kindness; her total devotion to her "boys" (kitties) and her willingness to be there for others should they need her. Also, we both shared a great love of the Christmas season and I still remember her tying her xmas tree to the walls so that her cats wouldn't send it flying over on the floor! I am devastated to learn of the loss of this special and unique soul.....I had no idea! I was going through some drawers the other day and came across the last letter Barb sent me and I was going to call her---something propelled me to look her up online; and I discovered that she passed away this past October, right before her birthday. I am so very sad that I never got the chance to see her in these last years. May she be flying with the angels and be at peace! My deepest sympathy! And I hope her dear cat Harry is in good hands and being well taken care of---if anything is needed for her kitty; please do not hesitate to contact me. “ *Barbara was a person who leaves an imprint on you..she always had a story..a new unique toy that made you laugh--she loved making others smile or laugh..
Her determination and getting through all that tried to knock her down made her get and up with even more gusto!!
On this day I honor her--her life and the bond we shared..I will miss you Barb..
With sympathy and fond memories-- your pizza lady..Jane Piazza*
