“ *Dear Marge,
I was so honored to spend time with Barry and meet you when Barry gave my brother Gary and me a tour of Albany Rural Cemetery. Barry was quite the historian. He was also a great friend to Gary and that means a lot to me. Wishing you peace and warm memories of a good man.*

“ Dear Margie, Marianne, Michael and Family Members,

My sincere and heart filled sympathy to ALL of you for sharing a wonderful, giving, and loving Husband, Father, Grandfather, Sibling, and Friend to ALL all of us! St. Pius X has truly been enriched by Barry. He truly touched a whole world of human beings, and all of of us have been enriched and have grown because of Barry' s life.

We use the expression so quickly “a good man”, but truly, Barry was the personification of a GOOD MAN,.. the BEST !,

Thank You again for enriching ALL of us by your gift to us of Barry.

With Gratitude , and much appreciation- my prayers for ALL,

*Tom Brown and Sandy
