“ The last time I saw Ben we smiled and hugged. My kids asked me, why did you hug that man? I told them he was a friend from way back and that I loved him, they laughed. I explained that we had gone separate ways but when we had seen each other we remembered our past and we embraced to show that. As I stood there with my arm around him I was happy to see him, it has been awhile since we last saw each other. Dude still love you RIP see you on the other side##imported-begin##john sager ##imported-end##
