“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Many great memories sitting with him at CBA as he watched Tommy play football and run track. He always made me laugh and seemed to be the first person I would see at sporting events. A dedicated father and Poppie that made me feel welcomed and part of something special. I will miss you, and thank you for the memories. Rest In Peace and always be our special angel. Much love,

“ Carol and Family, I really don't know what to say other than I am shocked and very sad. You have both been friends to Mary and I for many years, Mary more so because she grew up in the village. He was a great guy and was loved by all, you will be in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. He will be missed both at seniors and the IBS, may God shine his light on you.
