

Bridget Anne Koreman

August 20, 1944 - January 24, 2015

Albany-Bridget Anne Koreman, 70, died Saturday, January 24, 2015 at Albany Medical Center Hospital. Born in Swordlestown, Naas, County Kildare Ireland, Anne came to America to work as a nanny, met her beloved husband Charles and stayed in the country until God called her home.

Anne was a longtime church secretary for the former St. Francis De Sales Church. She was a member of the Beverwyck Neighborhood Association and volunteered for many years on Election Day for the Albany Democratic Party. She loved animals, especially cats.

She was the beloved and devoted wife for 38 years of the late Charles J. Koreman; sister of Martina Phipps, Mary Byrne, Joan Power, and Paula McHale all of Ireland and Gerri Conneely of England; many other nieces and nephews in Ireland and America survive her.

Funeral services Friday, January 30, 2015 at 9:45 am from McVeigh Funeral Home, 208 North Allen Street, Albany thence to Blessed Sacrament Church, Albany at 10:30.

Relatives and friends are invited and may visit Thursday, January 29, 2015 4:00 to 6:00 pm in the funeral home.

“ Our dear next door neighbor Anne. Many a summer night would be spent on your front porch with you and Charles. You were always like a sister to us. We had so many laughs and happy times on Manning Blvd. What a wonderful neighborhood to grow up in! You had such a beautiful contagious smile. We could always count on you even at a moments notice. You were one of a kind. Forever missed and in our hearts.
