

Camille T. Courcelle

January 31, 1927 - November 14, 2015

Albany – Camille T. Courcelle, 88, passed away peacefully surrounded by her loving family on November, 14, 2015. She was the daughter of Marie Blanche Tremblay and St. Georges Tremblay. She was predeceased by brothers, Julian and Gerald Tremblay, and sister, Denise Keyes.

She is survived by her husband of 68 years, Ralph A. Courcelle, as well as her children; Anne (Donald) Cooke, Deborah (Edward) Walsh, Caroline (Jerry) Foster, and Paul (Gretchen) Courcelle.

Camille had numerous careers which included working in Microbiology at Albany Med, running the Delmar Clinical Laboratory, and establishing an antique business with her husband. For the last 15 years she worked as an administrative assistant for Lawrence Kotlow, DDS.

Camille was an amazing, strong, kind hearted woman who brightened the lives of everyone she met. Her greatest accomplishment and most treasured possession was the love of her family.

Until the end of her days, she was actively involved in the lives of her grandchildren: Kristin (Andrew Nichols) Cooke, Jason (Heidi) Walsh, Jonathan (Caroline) Cooke, Leanne (Steve) Chartier, Kimberly (Kevin) Manion, Lindsay (Jered) Bonn, Jill (Chris) Trant, Matthew (Angela Krohn) Courcelle, Eric (Sara) Courcelle, Elizabeth (John) O'Clair.

Camille was also an incredibly strong presence in the lives of her great grandchildren, who were so fortunate to have known her: Emily, Ashlyn, Cameron, Brennen, Liam, Anna, Julianna, Nora, Braelyn, Jason, Madison, Samuel, Issac, Mackenzie and Liliana.

The family wishes to thank Dr. Peter Forman and Camille's granddaughters, Kristin Cooke, NP and Lindsay Bonn, RN for the loving care they provided her.

A Memorial Mass will be celebrated in her honor on Saturday, January 30, 2016 at 10:00 am at The Historic Church of St. Mary on Capitol Hill, Albany, one day shy of her 89th birthday.

Donations in her name can be made to a charity of your choice.
