“ To Mr. Bulgaro, Phyllis and your entire family-

My deepest condolences to all of you. Thank you so much for giving me an opportunity to have many memories of Scott and for allowing me to be a part of your family.

1979, the year that I met Scott, seems like only yesterday. At that time, South Colonie had 6 elementary schools in the district, each consisting of grades K-6. September 1979 would bring together every 7th grader in the district. All of us would attend under one roof, at Lisha Kill. This is where I met Scott. He would become known as 'Scottie B' to some, but he would be more affectionately known as 'Bogue' to a tighter group of friends. That year I met Dan DeNault too and the three of us would soon become connected at the hip. This incoming Lisha Kill class would eventually become Colonie High class of 1985. Lisha Kill was an awesome year to meet all sorts of new friends, from many different grade schools, yet all from the same town. I have many fine memories of Scott. He was a great friend and I will cherish my memories of him forever.

Sleep well my good friend, as you have some much needed and deserving rest to catch up on.

Until another time Bogue...

Friends forever.

*Love you brother,
John Aidala*
