“ A beautiful woman in so many ways. From her fabulous flair for fashion to her warm embracing open heart to me and my children. I will never forget the Christmas celebrations that included myself, my children and then my grandchildren. The wonderful Easter celebration with her traditional polish food and her warm inviting family. She embraced me from teen years and was like a mother to me in many ways. Toward the final stage I would visit her and she always knew me. She leaves this world her legend of love and compassion. She accepted me with open arms and heart. That love remains with me forever. Darling Carol, mother-grandmother-daughter-sister-aunt and friend you are cherished forever . Rest easy sweet LADY. You are missed and never ever forgotten.
