

Carole Anne Biegen

May 29, 1941 - February 10, 2014

Albany-Carole A. Biegen of Albany, New York: On February 10, 2014 we sadly said goodbye to Carole A. Biegen, mother, sister, grandmother, aunt, wife and friend, as she entered into eternal life surrounded by her family.

Carole was born in Union City, NJ, on May 29, 1941, and was daughter to the late Anthony & Madeleine Biegen. She joins her parents and her brothers Tony, Vincent and John, brother-in-law Edwin McAdam, nephew John and niece Patti with our Lord. Carole is survived by her devoted three children and their spouses, Maria & John Semenick of Ravena, NY; Michael & Jill Macarilla of Duxbury, VT and Michelle & Kevin Reynolds of Windermere, Fl., as well as her by her siblings Jean McAdam; Francis (Bernice); Quentin (Anne) Biegen and sister-in-law Marcy Biegen.

Carole graduated from St. Dominic's Academy in Jersey City, NJ, attended college and started her career at St. Peter's Hospital in Albany. After having her 3 children she returned to work at Community Health Plan and spent many years growing her career in the Marketing / Sales field. Her career continued with Kaiser Permanente and The United Way until her retirement in 2006.

Carole was an active member of the community and had the uncanny ability to light up a room with her smile. Whether it was her time with PBS, Albany-

Colonie Regional Chamber of Commerce or Make a Wish Foundation, she was able to make great impact in the missions of these organizations. Carole's retired life may have been cut short, but was filled with many happy memories of her grandchildren, close friends and family. She enjoyed entertaining, walking the mountains of her childhood home in the Catskills and strolling the beaches of Florida. Carole remarried in 2011 and is survived by her loving husband Clayton B. Johnson of Averill Park. A special thank you to all who have provided support to the family over these last several months. We love you all.

In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting donations to be made to Make a Wish Foundation In Memory of Carole A. Biegen, 1 Mustang Drive, Cohoes, NY 12047.

“ My sincere condolences. May the words at Isaiah 25:8 bring you comfort during this difficult time " He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ After hearing Carole's children eulogize their mother I am reminded of the great friend and even greater mother she was. She raised her children to be loving, smart and extremely articulate. I bet their speeches were triple underlined.

“ Your Mother is always with you.
She's the whisper of the leaves as you walk down the street;
she's the smell of bleach in your freshly laundered socks;
she's the cool hand on your brow when you're not well.
Your Mother lives inside your laughter.
And she's crystallized in every tear drop.
She's the place you came from, your first home;
and she's the map you follow with every step you take.
She's your first love and your first heartbreak, and nothing on earth can separate you.

Not time, not space... not even death.
