

Carolynn M. Tuite

October 31, 1945 - November 15, 2025

Glenmont, NY- Carolynn M Tuite died 9:25am Saturday, November 15, 2025, at hospice in Albany Medical Center after 7 years living with stage 4 cancer.

Born and raised in the Bronx, NY on October 31, 1945, to John and Anna (McGraw) Tuite, Carolynn became a businesswoman in Manhattan and eventually in Albany, NY. After retirement she was trained to be a volunteer ombudsman for nursing homes which ended after her diagnosis.

Carolynn was a great reader of all types of non-fiction books and always could be found reading. She also was a great baker of beautiful special occasion cakes, cookies and her quiche was the best in the land! Cooking was another joy of hers, catering always to the dietary needs of her guests. She was hospitality personified! She very much enjoyed hosting informal dinners for friends and family. Her garden accomplishments with flowers and vegetables were beautiful to see and delicious to eat. But one of her greatest delights was the creation of the Sunny Glenmont Card Shoppe. She created all occasion cards and special event ones too, along with bookmarks inspiring those who received them.

In all, Carolynn was pretty much a master at everything she did continuing to develop her many gifts. All this creativity came from her love that overflowed to her family and friends. She cared deeply for each member of her family and when she made a friend, they were friends for life -from childhood to the wisdom ages!

Carolynn's care, warmth and laugh will be missed by so many.

Carolynn is survived by her beloved sister, Maryanne V Tuite, Glenmont, NY, cousins Walter and Elizabeth Chilko, Jason Chilko, Victoria Chilko of Bartonsville, PA, Kelly Chilko of Phillipsburg, NJ, Carol Berrigan and Steven Berrigan of Mohegan Lake, NY, Pat Brazil, Tuckahoe, NY and many more cousins and a host of wonderful friends.

Special gratitude to her oncologist, Dr. Lawrence Garbo and the staff at Albany Medical Center . A special note of great thanks to Mary Harrison and Pat Walsh for all their careful attention of these difficult preparations.

Relatives and friends are invited to visit with Carolynn's family Thursday, November 20, 2025 10:30 am to 12:00 pm at St. Vincent DePaul Church, Albany, NY. Her Funeral Mass will begin at 12:00 pm. The Mass will be streamed at facebook.com/stvincentalbany “ Carolynn was more than my cousin. She, along with Maryanne, was the big sister I never had. I will always remember and treasure our long talks for there was never a short talk with Carolynn. She was always so anxious to help in any way she could. I was lucky and very proud to have her as a member of our family and she will be sorely missed.

“ Carolynn, my dear friend for over forty years, was an Amazing Woman. Start with faith & honesty add strength of character that rises above the stress of life's surprises, fold in personality, toss with generosity, pour in love from a heart that's true. That is a recipe for an Amazing Woman named "Carolynn". I will miss you.
