Charlie was a great man to many in the neighborhood at the grocery store when were kids growing up we all loved talking with him..... God Bless

Dwight Hill - July 10, 2017 at 02:03 PM

“ Charlie had the best Heart he would welcome the little on ones at Halloween and every christmas an Easter he would give each child a stuffed animal! He had so much love for kids. He even talked to their parents. He was the first neighbor we met when his sister asked what we looking in the windows for? Never forgotten and he will always be remembered as a good neighbor admired.
