

Charles W. Heran Jr

April 25, 1955 - January 21, 2022

Albany-Charles W. Heran Jr, passed away Friday, January 21, 2022, with his family at his side. Chuck was born in Bridgeport, CT son of the late Charles W. Heran Sr and Marion Chimino Heran. He graduated from Boston College and Thomas Cooley Law School and practiced law with both Traveler's and Martin, Harding and Mazzotti from which he retired in December of 2019.

He was an avid sports fan, rooting for the NY Yankees, the NY Giants and his alma mater, Boston College.

Chuck was never more happy than when he was at home with his children and his grandchildren but could be persuaded to travel annually to Key West with his family. Much to their parents dismay, he could often be found buying cookies for his grandchildren on Duval Street at 8 am, because "there's no such thing as time in Key West."

Wherever Chuck was there was always music playing, from Bob Marley to the Beatles. Chuck enjoyed fishing, which he didn't get to do nearly as often as he would have liked to.

He is survived by his wife of 42 years Jeanne Heran; father of Kyle Heran (Karissa), Meghan Wilock (Nicholas); cherished grandfather of 5 grandchildren who were his pride and joy, Amelia Grace Heran, Theo Nicholas

Willock, Roman Nicholas Willock, Juliette Marie Heran, and his newest granddaughter who was given his namesake, Giorgia Charles Willock; brother of Kathy Odoardi (Joseph), Stephen Heran (Areta) and Michael Heran (Kim) and a large extended family.

Relatives and friends are invited to visit with Chuck's family Tuesday, January 25, 2022, 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm at St. Pius X Church, Loudonville, NY. Masks are required for everyone.

“ Chuck was a generous and positive friend who handed off to me the first case that I ever tried to a jury verdict. It was many years ago in 1988 or 1989 and Chuck had handled the case up until trial. I was five years Chuck's junior in the practice of law and had never taken a jury verdict. Chuck thought that it was an easy case to try and win and arranged for me to take over. In the years that we worked together, Chuck was always positive and encouraging to all his colleagues. Chuck was a consummate professional in his work and always put his family first and foremost. I will always be grateful for having known and worked with Chuck Heran. Sincere condolences to Jeanne and your family. Thank you.

“ We love you and are thinking of you Herans. Will never forget Chuck's relentless taunting when the giants beat the pats :), and his support when i was thinking about law school. Not to mention putting up with college-aged me and Kyle, which wasn't easy.

Sincerely,

Justin, Kate, Reese & Colby V.

“ Dear Jeanne, Kyle and Meghan -

It was a shock to hear of Chuck's passing. He was always loved listening to music, playing basketball, football and baseball games. He especially loved the time he spent with his family and family gatherings. Chuck was a co-work and friend that was dependable and supportive. He would enjoy office events and was an important part of the office family during his time at Travelers.

Chuck will be greatly missed by his loving family and friends and I am truly sorry for your loss.

“ I knew Chuck as “Kyle’s dad” but also as the original “old bull” of St Pius mens basketball. He was ever competitive but always kind and playful to this awkward teenager. I also enjoyed our annual BC / VT banter over email.

*I’ll pray for Chuck and you all,
