“ To Chucky's family and friends,
It is with deep sorrow that I am reading about cousin Chucks passing. Chucky and I had many conversations during the late 90's and early 2000's when we both reconnected as we were both living on Yardboro Ave. Unfortunately, we lost touch after I moved off of Yardboro. I am so sorry to hear of his passing and my deepest sympathies go out to everyone that knew and loved him. RIP 🙏

“ To the Weldon Family....

I was sorry to read about the loss of your father. Even tho most of my memories are of Benson Street and growing up with you guys, I did run into Chuck and his wife at Huck Finn's many years ago. I was there with my husband and all of a sudden, I heard the sound of a horn and heard...."Tugboat Lucy!!!" Don't know why your father called me that, but I knew who it was as soon as I heard it. We chatted for a bit, had some laughs, and went on our way. Seeing him again and sharing some happy times on Benson Street gave me a pang of some really good times.
