“ Maddie, Charlene, Cliff, Kieth,

My sincere condolence to you. Kaz was a good friend as well as my brother-in-law. We shared some great experiences like fishing in Lake Cossayuna; working together for his (and my adopted) Dad Chuck.

I invite you to write me and share with you some of my memories of Kaz and me.

I pray for his soul.

“ Some of my fondest memories were when we would visit Uncle Kaz in the summer. We would swim in his above ground pool and he would call me his "Sun Kissed Miss". He was always so excited to see his California family. Uncle Kaz you will be missed.

“ I have very fond memories of Uncle Kaz. As a small lad, he would take me in the delivery truck, probably just for a ride around the block, but he made me feel like I was special. Always a smile and a kind word. I've always considered him a role model uncle and he'll be remembered fondly. God's speed Uncle Kaz, you will be missed.
