

Charles F. Sellnow Jr

December 21, 1947 - April 4, 2011

Delmar-Charles F. Sellnow Jr, 63, died at home Monday, April 4, 2011 surrounded by his loving family. Born in Albany, he was the son of the late Charles Sellnow and Sadie Coogan Strzesiewski. He was a decorated US Army Vietnam War veteran.

Charles was employed for over thirty years at Verizon, and went on to operate C. Sellnow Contracting. He was a member of the CWA Union and Joseph E. Zaloga American Legion Post 1520. He enjoyed reading, golfing, fishing, hunting and especially spending time with his beloved family and friends

Charles family will miss him deeply, and he will forever be remembered for his humor, quick wit, and as the 'go-to -guy' for everyone who knew him.

He was the beloved husband of Ellen King Sellnow; cherished father of Erin and Magan Sellnow; brother of Ron Sellnow, John Sellnow, Donna DiNova and the late Sharon Wesoloski; devoted son to Percy and Mame Meyers; several nieces and nephews also survive.

“ We were so sorry to hear of Chuck's passing. We enjoyed getting to know he and Ellen through Sam and Jan. Chuck always wore a gentle smile. Last year at Val's wedding we loved how beautiful it was to watch Chuck with his daughter Erin and of coarse Ellen. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Mike and Kristin Barnes##imported-end##

“ Dearest Erin (Erbear) & Family,

We are so sorry for your loss. Though we never had the chance to meet your father, his love for you and your love for him was evident. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers.

We are all here for you whenever you need us.

Love,
