“ Cher's wake and funeral were a beautiful tribute to a lovely woman. The magnificent flowers, the choice of music and the entire service was moving. Despite the sadness of losing Cher, I feel joy. I am grateful I had her in my life. Cher listened to what I said with compassion and in doing so made me feel good about life. She was an unassuming person possessing genuineness and sincerity. Her warm smile and infectious laugh will always inspire me to live more spiritually.

“ I am so saddened by the loss of Cherie. I've known her since High School and always valued her friendship. She was one of the sweetest people I have ever known. And she was always smiling and soft spoken. The world needs a lot more people as good as her and it is such a shame that she left us so soon. In recent years I have seen her at our CCHS "girls' luncheon" in August since we sold our home in Colonie four years ago and I was only in the Albany area in August to visit our granddaughter. I am so sorry she decided to smoke and didn't accept that it could lead to her demise or was just too hooked on it to stop. Smoking took my brother, Ron, and my Dad, and one of the best friends I have ever had. It is truly a deadly addiction. God bless her soul and may she rest in peace until her family once again joins her in Heaven. My thoughts and prayers are with her and her loved ones. Barbara Davis-Boardman (snowbirdbarb@gmail.com)
