“ *To the Mancini family
My deepest condolences to Clara's family and friends. I knew and worked with Clara for many years. She was truly a charming and most hard-working person. Always got very positive and complimentary feedback from staff about Clara and her work. We also knew Clara from the Cathedral church from the days when she still attended there. We all will miss her.
I special quick note to Nicholas, your grandmother loved you and talked about you all the time!!

“ I remember Clara well from her days as a cleaner when she worked at the New York State Museum. She was a very hard worker and also had a wonderful sense of humor and loved to share stories about her family and recipes she enjoyed creating. She was a delightful person and it was always a pleasure to stop and chat with her. May her family take comfort in knowing that Clara touched the lives of many as she went about her daily tasks. I consider myself blessed to have known her.

“ To Maurizio and Marco,

My deepest condolences to you both on your mom's passing.

Our families were very close since coming from Italy. Our moms were very good friends and loved spending time together. They spent a lot of time laughing together. They are all reunited again.

May she rest in peace.
