

Clifford P. Ruhl

July 27, 1944 - November 19, 2019

Loudonville-Clifford P. Ruhl passed away peacefully on Tuesday November 19, 2019. Clifford was born in Albany on July 27, 1944. He was the son of the late Anna and Napoleon Ruhl, brother to the late June (Ruhl) Barth and late brother Paul M. Ruhl. He attended St. John's School.

After retirement from Leaseway Transportation in 1983, (18 years) he purchased ACR Warehouse in Albany. He was a partner in ACR Alarm and Security. Following the sale of ACR Warehouse he became property manager of the Labor Temple Association in Albany New York. Clifford was a dedicated Teamster of Local 294 for 32 years.

Clifford is survived by his daughter, Kimberly Shanno, son in law Justin Shanno and grandson Adam and Kyle Shanno. He is also survived by his sister, Henrietta Larson; and many nieces and nephews.

A special thank you to Brian Miller, John & Laura Archambault, Bill Desforge, Bob Sherman, Kathy Harkin, John Bulgaro, Jeanenne Cornell and St. Peter's Hospice. We are eternally grateful for the endless support of his daughter Kimberly and sister Henrietta.

Relatives and friends are invited to visit with Clifford's family Monday, November 25, 2019 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm at McVeigh Funeral Home, 208 North

“ *To the Ruhl Family and Cliff's close friends -
On behalf of all of us at the New York Labor Health Care Alliance, based in the Labor Temple, we extend our heartfelt sympathy to you all.*

Cliff always had a word or two with me as he passed by my office, he jumped on any building issue immediately like it was his own, and his dry humor and wit will be missed. The Alliance will be honored to make a contribution to CBA in his memory.

“ I waited on Cliff for many years at Dan's diner when i worked there. He was very perticular about his food. I thought to myself 'Oh Boy'.. But he turned out to be a great man. Even after i left the diner i would see him at Union functions and we picked up right where we left off. He loved my cashew brownies. I will truly miss seeing his stern face and that eyebrow he raised. Rest easy my friend. Hugs and prayers to his family.

“ I have been given a gift the past few years of Cliffs friendship. I will miss his determined mindset in all things he did. I admired his love for his family that he spoke of so often. He was so proud of his grandkids. He would stop by and see what I was up to with beautiful fresh cut hydrangeas in hand from his gardens. As difficult of a time this is comfort your souls by knowing he is at peace now and handled it with strength and the way he wanted too. Sending you all healing thoughts & strength.
