

Cynthia W. Hatt

January 30, 1923 - August 4, 2011

Glenmont- Cynthia Worthington Hatt, loving wife and mother of 5 children passed away August 4, 2011 at her home in Glenmont, New York, in the presence of her family. She was born Cynthia Hallowell Worthington in 1923 in Bustleton, Pa., youngest of nine children, and the daughter of Lester Pierce Worthington and Elizabeth Edwards. She was a graduate of Woodbury High School and the Pierce Business School in Philadelphia.

Cynthia, a devoted wife and mother, worked at various times in a secretarial capacity for her husband's Albany law firm, as well as for the Farm Family Insurance Company in Glenmont, New York. She and her husband were very active socially, past members of Albany Country Club, The University Club, and St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Albany, and Cynthia herself was once a member of the Junior League of Albany. She was a fine pianist, and avid golfer, and adept bridge player.

Most of all she was loved by all her family and friends, a truly kind and understanding mother, a loving and devoted wife, possessing a goodness and gentleness of spirit that touched all who knew her. She will be forever cherished in the hearts of her children and family.

A small memorial service will be held at her home in Glenmont on Sunday evening, August 7, 2011.

She is survived by her five children: Gregory of Oconomowoc, Wisconsin, Barent of Glenmont, NY, Josiah of Naples, Fla., Schuyler of Scotia, NY, and Elizabeth Kielty of North Brunswick, NJ. She is also survived by two brothers, Norton G. Worthington, and Jack H. Worthington, and one sister, Elizabeth Chamberlain.

“ We will deeply miss Cindy. She was such a loving friend of our family for so many years - and a wonderful neighbor. She and Greg always had great parties and made everyone feel loved and happy whenever we were in their presence. I will greatly miss Cindy and her loving, happy, and truly beautiful spirit.
