

Deborah Denise Sinnamon

November 6, 1953 - July 18, 2024

Schenectady, NY-Deborah Denise Sinnamon, surrounded by her family, my beloved mom passed away peacefully and pain free on July 18, 2024, after a lifelong fight with kidney disease. She will forever be cherished and remembered by her son and family, Jeremy J. Male, and her Daughter-in-law Anita L. Male. Deborah was best known to her cherished grandsons Aiden and Jaxon Male as their G-Ma. Deborah will be missed by her sister and family Yvonne Sinnamon and her husband Stephen Sullivan. Aunt to Shannon, and Morgan Sullivan. Deborah is predeceased by her parents. The late David Sinnamon and Shirley Higgins. She is also predeceased by her late sister Stephanie Sinnamon-Andreas.

Deborah was born in Delmar, NY, and a lifelong residence of the Capital District. Deborah was a property manager for TriCity rentals for most of her career.

My mom loved working on her flower gardens as she had the best green thumb. I'll remember my mom as enjoying attending concerts with me, relaxing in the sun, her many books for her love of reading. My mom also had a natural talent for decorating, collecting her trunks, bottles and going to Stormville, NY to the flea markets. I look back now at how many times she called on me to help lift a new trunk from the back of her car. Mom had the trunks usually filled with things she just bought. I'll miss lifting your trunks mom. Rest mom you are finally at peace. Your loving son, Jeremy.

A celebration of my mom's life will be held on Thursday July 25, 2024, at McVeigh Funeral Home 208 North Allen St. Albany, NY 12206. Calling Hours are from 4-7pm.
