“ Aunt Dolores reminds me so much of her brother (my grandfather) Harold. They both had such a low key personality, which always made me feel relaxed. I used to sit with her sometimes when I would visit my Aunt Jeanne, who lived next door to her. I always looked forward to that cup of tea and quite conversation. She was a beautiful woman and will be dearly missed by all who knew her. My deepest condolences to the rest of the family for their loss.
