“ Our deepest condolences to all of the Newcomb families. I have very fond memories of Uncle Don, his love for trains and the stories talked about at each birthday celebration on Livingston Avenue still makes me smile. He will certainly be missed.

“ I sadden to read of the loss Donald. While we have all grown older and gone our separate ways, but the Newcombs have always and still are considered by the Camadine Family, as family. Its a relationship that goes back over 100 years. I often think of the good times I had stopping by with my grandfather to visit on Livingston Avenue. So while I've not seen you in many years I hold fond memories of all of you, I've I know 4 generations of Newcombs and had good times with them all. You my deepest condolences on your loss. My prayers & thoughts are with you. Rest In Peace Donald.
