Albany-Doris K. Derry, 90, died Tuesday, October 6, 2015 at a local nursing home. Her children have all been with her on a daily basis for many months as she progressed through her various illnesses. She was a dear and generous woman who cared unstintingly for others whether they were family, friends, relations, or acquaintances. She leaves a family grateful for the grace of her presence and strength of character in our lives. She was our center of being in every way imaginable.

“ To Brian and all the Derrys,

I just heard of your mother's passing and would like to extend my deepest condolences to you, Lynda and your entire family. I will always remember her staying calm and cool when you (we) got into some kind of trouble. She had a tremendous amount of patience, to say the least.

God bless her and all the Derrys during this difficult time.

Sincerely,

Kevin & Denise Dollard

“ Dear Lynn and family,

I only had the pleasure of meeting you Mother on one occasion. My impression of her was probably expressed in the words of her memorial. She informed me that her class at VI was the smartest in history. (Not to be intimidated, I responded that they were probably the best looking as well. She agreed.)

I'm sure your Mom is in a very happy place. She will be in our prayers.
