

Dorothy M. Nicklas

June 1, 1922 - April 8, 2015

Albany-Born in Albany on June 1, 1922 Dot was the beloved wife of Alfred G. Nicklas for 58 years until his death on July 30, 2007. She was the devoted mother of Gerald Nicklas of Pompano Beach, Florida, Richard Nicklas of Albany, Don (Michelle) Nicklas of Bethlehem, and a special friend to Rosemary Patterson. She was the cherished grandmother of Corey and Kylee Nicklas. Dot died Wednesday, April 8, 2015 at home.

Dot was a graduate of Albany High School. As a young woman Dot worked for the New York Central Railroad and then as a cashier for the A&P Market and Sleasman's Modern Food Market. She later worked as a school crossing guard and then worked at the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance for 15 years until her retirement in 1985.

Dot enjoyed bowling, golf and traveling during the earlier years of her retirement, but most of all enjoyed being with her family. She was a generous, kind and fun-loving person who maintained her great sense of humor even as she battled serious illness. Dot was a communicant of Mater Christi Church and was a religious person who found great comfort in her spirituality.

Dot's family would like to thank her primary care physician, Dr. Denise Letteriello, nurse Mary and all of the staff at Prime Care at 1444 Western Avenue for the wonderful care they provided to Dot for many years. The family also is thankful to Joan and Joanie, mom's home health aides, for the wonderful care and friendship they provided to Dot. Also, the comfort and care provided by Community Hospice, especially mom's nurse Lindsay, was very much appreciated.
