

E. Michael DiFabio

October 27, 1926 - June 29, 2022

Loudonville, NY-E. Michael DiFabio, 95, died peacefully at his home with his wife and family by his side on Wednesday, June 29, 2022. Born and raised in Green Island, and long-time resident of Loudonville, and the son of the late Erminio and Vincenza DiFabio. He proudly served his country in World War II in the United States Army Air Force. He was a graduate of Siena College and Albany Law School.

He was a practicing lawyer and Certified Public Accountant who founded his own law and accounting firms in Albany where he built a practice that served both local and international clients.

He was a devout Catholic and committed communicant of St. Pius X Parish, and a member and Knight of the Order of Malta. For his entire life, he demonstrated his exceptional work ethic and commitment to education and learning. He served on the boards of Siena College, Maria College, St. Gregory's School and Albany Academy for Girls. He was a leader, a bellwether and entrepreneur. He was deeply valued as a wise and trusted counselor by his clients, colleagues, family and friends throughout his life.

He had a love of music and was an accomplished musician. He played the saxophone and clarinet in a local area dance band in his early years and later in the band for the US Army Air Force during his service in the South Pacific. He cared deeply for both his family and his close friends; he believed firmly that “a faithful friend is a sturdy shelter/he who finds one finds a treasure.”

He is survived by his beloved wife of 60 years Janet DiFabio, and his four children Michael (Carol) DiFabio, Laura (Jeffrey) Benson, Andrea DiFabio (John Ansteth) and Kara (Scott) Marsden, seven grandchildren: Katherine (Joshua) Powers; Julia DiFabio, Michael DiFabio, Thomas Benson, Emily Benson, Katharine Ansteth and Emma Ansteth, and great-grandson Bennett Powers.

His family is grateful for the excellent care he received from Community Hospice and all of his exceptional caregivers.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend Michael’s Funeral Mass Friday, July 1, 2022 at St. Pius X Church, Loudonville at 12:30 pm. The Mass can be viewed at <https://www.stpiusxloudonville.org/new-live-videos/>

To leave a message for the family please visit www.McveighFuneralHome.com

At his request, there will be no visitation hours. The Rite of Committal will be held privately.

Previous Events

Service

JUL 1. 12:30 PM (ET)

St. Pius X Church
23 Crumitie Rd
Loudonville, NY 12211
(518) 462-1336

Tribute Wall

“ E. Michael DiFabio

---

October 08, 2023 at 09:24 PM

“ I am so sorry for your loss. My thoughts and prayers go out to Kara and her family and especially to her Mom. Being with the man you love for so many years will leave a huge void in her life Evie

---

Evie - June 30, 2022 at 06:09 AM

“ *Dear Janet and family,
It has always brought me great comfort and joy knowing how much my Dad treasured his friendship with Mike. I have been so grateful for the kindness you both showed to my Mom during those difficult days. Know that you are forever in my prayers.*

---

Diane Santandrea Forenzo - June 29, 2022 at 05:14 PM

VA

Dear Janet and family,

Sharing very deeply in your sorrow as we hallow the memory of a very special person...Mr Di, my Mentor, my kind Boss, my Partner at work. We both shared our love and devotion for his ' girlfriend ', St. Therese of Lisieux. She will surely welcome Mr. Di in the peace and joy of eternal life in heaven, where with God, love lives forever. I thank the Lord for the blessing of many years I worked for Mr. Di. May God's loving presence comfort you and His promise of eternal life carry you through during this time of loss. May God's peace overflow in the days ahead.

With deepest sympathy, my prayers and love,

Virginia Abello

---

Virginia M. Abello - June 30, 2022 at 02:08 PM