Lake George-Edward C. Conway of Lake George, NY and Vero Beach, FL passed peacefully in the care of angels at the VNA Hospice House on November 19, 2021, with family at his side.

Born in Mechanicville, NY he was the son of the late Edward F. and Minnie (Eggleston) Conway. Conway and wife Terri, his grandson Spencer J. Conway, his niece Pam Huffmire Austin and his grand nieces and great nephews.

Ed was a man of his word and devoted to his family. He was a lifelong NY

“ Jack and I were so blessed to have spent time with Eddie in New York and in Florida. No matter where we were our visits revolved around one theme, sweets! When in Lake George he was a great host who selflessly woke up early just to get us those special donuts. Just for us, haha! We then went to the famous ice cream parlor so we could experience his favorite ice cream. In Florida he knew how to boost my ego by graciously accepting all the pies and cookies I would bring.

He was a good man and a great father who passed those traits down to his son.

James and Terri, y'all were so devoted to spending time and then to caring for Eddie for so many years and I know y'all were blessed in doing so. He will be greatly missed.

We love y'all, Jack and Julie

“ Our condolences and prayers go to Ed Conways son James, his wife Terri, and his son Spencer. We always enjoyed Ed's company, especially when a group of Niagara Mohawk employees and their wives got together for a fun lunch with many good memories in Lake Placid, N.Y. Ed's faith kept him going for a long time. He truly was a great person-honest, fair and funny when sharing his memories. He will be especially missed by his friend "DUNC" and their summer visits in Lake George. God rest his soul. Gene and Linda Duncan

“ Our condolences to Ed Conway and our prayers to his son Jim and family. Ed was such a good friend. We enjoyed visiting him at his Lake George home and Florida home. When he came to our home in Northern New York and Florida home we enjoyed his visits greatly. It was in Florida, after extensive search we found and reunited Ed with a friend from their college years. We often would dinner in upper NYS and Florida with Ed, Dave and Anne Wright, Rog and myself. Each of us are truly close friends. Anne and I would just sit back, smile and laugh as Ed, Dave and Rog would tell of their work and representation of the Niagara Mohawk employees. Ed was a True, Honest and Trustworthy Friend to Niagara Mohawks employees. God Bless you Ed and may God rest your soul in peace. Your faith has held strong. Ed we will miss you. “ It has been an honor to call Ed Conway my friend. He was the first one to reach out as my neighbor at Grand Harbor and became my dearest friend and confidante. He was always there to listen and offer to share a sweet treat. We would have coffee or a beer on the porch watching the fountain in the pond. He would put on his Bluetooth and play his favorite tunes. Always offering a hand even when he had the braces. Ed had so many great stories and i loved looking thru his pictures and talking sports. He was the type of guy who had Thanksgiving with me instead of going to the club. He loved the simple things like going to the pool or playing rumikub. His greatest accomplishments are his children. Ed always attended Holy Cross Catholic Church in Vero Beach. A mass is being said in his honor. He will be dearly missed but we are all better for knowing him.

“ My sincere condolences to the family of our dear friend. He was one of the finest and honest friends to my wife, Anne and myself. I had the good fortune to work at Niagara Mohawk Power Corp for 39 years. I was at one time the president of Local 137, I.B.E.W and also Chairman of System Council U11 in Syracuse. I found "BIG ED" to be the most honest person to deal with, in the company he represented. His word was his bond. We lived in Lake George with Ed and Jean, and also in Vero Beach, FL., where we would get together, along with Roger Morgan, also an Ex, president of the I.B.E.W.and his wife, Cheryl, at the Italian Grill in Vero Beach for dinner. We, along with all those who were fortunate enough to have known Ed, will miss him greatly. Thank you, Jim, for keeping in touch us, during this difficult time. God Bless. Dave Wright
