“ To Judge Beverly and family, I am so deeply sorry for the loss of Judge Tobin. He was such a great guy all around. The last time I had the pleasure of running into the Tobin's was actually on my 40th birthday in a morning breakfast at the Gateway Diner. Judge Tobin was so smart. He recognized me immediately and came over and I said "OMG I'm a 40 year old) and he said something like just don't end up in jail tonight and you'll be fine. And Judge Beverly Tobin was always so kind whenever I would see them. It was obvious how much they loved each other and what family means to them. Rest in Peace Judge J. Edwin Tobin. You will be missed. Peace and blessings to your family.

Sincerely,

Melissa (Dr. Ted Zeltner's office)
